CHICAGO – The Building Service Contractors Association International (BSCAI) announces 3M as a BSCAI Vendor Partner in 2009, continuing its long-term relationship with the association.

BSCAI Vendor Partners participate in programs that demonstrate their commitment to the association. 3M and other select companies make it possible for BSCAI to develop and host high quality events such as the BSCAI Annual Convention, the CEO Summit, the BSCAI Executive Seminar and the BSCAI CEO Seminar.

“I’m proud to recognize 3M as one of our Vendor Partners in 2009, and thank 3M for their long-standing support of BSCAI,” said BSCAI president, Stanley Doobin, Harvard Maintenance, Inc. “We’re pleased to have a strong relationship with an organization that is well-recognized and respected in the industry for their services, professionalism and dedication to our association.”

The BSCAI Vendor Partner Program recognizes partner contributions year-round through a combination of online and print marketing, event exposure, membership mailings, press releases and Webinars.

Other 2009 Vendor Partners include Team Software and Windsor Industries.
