Hidden Harvest Receives $1,000.00 Gift

SAGINAW, MI. — Brigitte and John Markey, CBSE, principles of Absolute! Building Maintenance (A!BM) recently returned from the Building Services Contractors Association International (BSCAI) Convention held in Chicago, Illinois with a $1,000.00 check in hand made out to the Great Lakes Region’s HIDDEN HARVEST. The check, a portion of the annual Arthur C. Barraclough Community Service Award is presented to the nation’s building services contractor deemed most involved in community services. The 2011 award was presented to John Markey, CBSE, Vice President of A!BM at the association’s convention held October 18-20, 2012 at McCormick Place.

HIDDEN HARVEST’s mission is a simple concept. Don’t waste food and if you have extra, get it to people that can use it. For 18 years, HIDDEN HARVEST has done just that. More than 20 million pounds of healthy and nutritious food has been distributed to hunger relief organizations here in the Great Lakes Bay Region. John Markey presented the check to HIDDEN HARVEST Board of Directors at their meeting on Thursday, October 25th, 2012.

Absolute! is a family owned firm in its fourth decade of operations which provides services to clients within the Great Lakes Bay Region A!BM employs 240 full and part-time associates. The firm’s belief is that locally owned businesses should have a strong affiliation to the communities where they provide their services. “We’re committed to serving our neighbors. It is a part of our Code of Ethics,” states President Brigitte H. Markey. As contained in our Code of Ethics:  We will serve in our communities to improve the quality of life of our neighbors.

Absolute! supports many worthwhile organizations because, as a local business, it’s just the right thing to do! Over the years the firm has received numerous commendations for local community involvement. Absolute! is very proud to have the ability to lend financial support and volunteer time to more than 60 organizations in the Genesee and Great Lakes Bay Region.

A!BM provides commercial janitorial, carpet cleaning and window washing throughout the Great Lakes Bay and Genesee Region. For more information, please visit their website at  http://www.abmservice.com, or call (800) 588-2424.